LEGACY OF INDIE ARTIST EMPOWERMENT

Having worked with some of the most iconic names in the music business, HIMA founder Brent Harvey has a unique affection for independent music artists. Of all the accolades and titles associated with Brent's name, the one he is most proud of is Artist Advocate. Brent has mentored, managed, booked, and created unprecedented opportunities for emerging artists for decades. Whether a key performance placement in a high-profile music event, a professional recommendation, or a simple introduction to one of his many industry relationships, Brent continues to "crack open doors" for talented, emerging artists.

Just one of his notable concepts was "Indie Thursday" at the Renaissance Hollywood Hotel. On the first Thursday of the month, three artists performed 20-minute sets. VIPs in the audience (invited by Brent) would choose their favorite of the three. The chosen artist would play the hotel the following Thursdays of the month...and get paid...in Hollywood! In the 2 1/2 years this program was active, over 400 indie artists got paid gigs. For many, it was the first time they received a paycheck for their craft. Brent has often said, "some of the biggest stars I've seen are ones you've never heard of."
